

Jan Zlatan Kulenović, MA

Bosnia-Herzegovina

Jan Zlatan Kulenović is Director of the Youth Information Agency Bosnia-Herzegovina (OIA), one of the leading NGOs in the field of youth empowerment with more than 50.000 involved young people from entire country. In the last 15 years he was board member of different CSO networks and programs and consultant for more than 20 international organizations (such as UNDP, WB, UNV, UNFPA, UNICEF, EC, OSCE, CoE, BCYF, SDC etc.). He is (co)-author of various articles, manuals and reports on youth, CSO and youth employment in Bosnia-Herzegovina and the Balkans. As a trainer and expert he was involved in different local and international programs in the field of youth employment, development of civil society and youth engagement, peace building, youth information service, project management etc.

He holds Master of Art degree on Social Development Practice from the London Metropolitan University. He was fellow in numerous international programs (E.g. Young Leaders Program of the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, BMW Foundation's Responsible Leaders, Global University Program of Peaceboat Japan, OXFAM Australia OIYP, EU Peoples to People Program, Young Professionals in Forum of Federations India etc).

In 2012 he established the first Social Innovation Incubator "Munja" in Sarajevo and in 2015 the new info platform Hoću.ba for supporting youth employability in Bosnia-Herzegovina.

He was actively involved in Debate Program (IDEA), as a competitor (World Champion in 1999), judge and trainer. In 2000 he graduated in School of Speech from Zagreb University. From 2000 till 2006 he was host and moderator for more than 120 episodes of youth TV debates on the national broadcasts (BHT and FTV). Since then he was trainer on presentation skills, speech and debate and moderator of different local and international events, meetings and conferences.

More info:

E-mail: jan@munja.ba

Facebook: www.facebook.com/jan.kulenovic

LinkedIN: ba.linkedin.com/in/jankulenovic

Skype: jan.kulenovic

www.hocu.ba

www.munja.ba