Talk for Peace

Tehran Peace Museum Free English Discussion Calendar

Autumn-Winter 2019-2020

Location: Tehran Peace Museum (Map)

Time: 4 PM

2019, October 13th (Sunday)

Anger, Aggression, Violence

Every day we are faced with many conflicts in different aspects of our lives; sometimes our reaction has Anger, Aggression or Violence in them. What are these and where do they come from? Should we stop them, punish them or guide them? Let’s talk?

• We will watch a short video during the session.

2019, November 12th (Tuesday)

Tolerance

What is tolerance? Where did it come from? What should we tolerate? How should we tolerate? Is it necessary or could we replace it with something else? What do you think? Let’s talk.

2019, December 11th (Wednesday)

Human Right v. Peace

Do you think Human Rights and Peace could coexist together? What if there is a choice between them? Is it possible to achieve one for the price of the other? Which one would you pick? Let’s talk!
2020, January 13th (Monday)

The other cheek

If someone slaps you (literally or figuratively) would you turn the other cheek? If your answer is positive, why? And if it’s negative, what would you do instead and why? Let’s talk!

2020, February 8th (Saturday)

Ideal Education

Imagine you’re asked to establish a whole new education system? How would you design it? What would you keep from the current system and what would you take out? Why? Let’s talk!

2020, March 4th (Wednesday)

Charity, Yes or No?

Do you think helping charities or doing charitable work helps the community or society? Does it have lasting effects? Do you believe in its cause? Should we encourage more people to do that? Or not? Let’s talk!